VOL. VII.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, SATURDAY, MAY 24, 1879.

NO. 47.

TRUCKEE ITEMS.

[From the Republican of To-day.]

There is 100,000 pounds of freight at the depot awaiting shipment to the Pumas Furka mine.

On Tuesday next the Nevada county Workingmen will hold primaries throughout the county to elect delegates to the county convention, which meets at Nevada City on May 31st, for the purpose of electing delegates to the state and congressional convention.

Jack Campbell is renovating his large and commodious hotel at Sierra valley, Hot Springs, and will be ready for visitors the first of June. Mr. Campbell says that hay will be cut in the upper end of the valley before the grasshoppers are old enough to do any harm.

H. G. Oliver is in town, endeavoring to organize a lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. This order is exceedingly popular, and is rapidly spreading throughout the coast. It is based upon correct principles of endowment, and the family of each member receives at his death two thousand dollars. There are many secret organizations in Truckee, but there is abundant room for one so praiseworthy as that represented by Mr. Oliver.

From Dr. Leonard we learn the following: Sierra Buttes mine is running with a crew of about 300 men under the able management of superintendent Wm. Jelms. It is paying handsome dividends. Wages are entirely satisfactory, being from $40 to $50 per month and board. The lodging quarters are comfortable, and no pains or expense is spared to make it a desirable place to work. The table is furnished with good, wholesome food, second to no other mining camp in the state, and the genial superintendent, Mr. Preston, is ever ready to welcome the visitor.

Nevada City Items.

[From the Herald.]

Patrick Feehey, an old and respectable resident of Omega, in this county, committed suicide on last Tuesday night by shooting himself through the head with a rifle. Deceased was a hard working miner and leaves a wife and large family of children to grieve over their sudden loss.

During the hail storm which prevailed here yesterday, hailstones fell about half an inch in diameter which were almost perfectly square. This is something uncommon in this section, and may not occur again.

The new hoisting machinery erected at the Schmidt mine will be ready to get up steam to-morrow. Operations will be commenced in a few days. They are sinking the incline at present.

Galena and Carbonate Ores.

[Silver State.]

Pat. Bell arrived in town last evening from Silver State district. He says large veins of galena and carbonate ore have been discovered from six to eight miles north of Lewis Hill. One assay of the carbonate ore has been made, and it shows that it contains over $200 in silver and $20 in gold to the ton. The range in which these mines are situated is an inviting field for prospectors. It runs almost due north from Black Mountain, west of town, to Quin river valley, and silver bearing ores have been found wherever it has been prospected.

The Pacific Telegraph.

[Silver State.]

Mark McDonald, President of the Pacific Telegraph company, owners of the line between Winnemucca and Walla Walla, Oregon, passed through last evening. In an interview with the manager of the Western Union office, he said the company intended to repair the line between here and Idaho, and keep it in good working order. He also remarked that the company would probably extend the line from Pete Flynn's or Cane Springs station to Paradise village and Spring city this summer.

The Champion. Dr. Wagner, of No. 124 South C street, Virginia, is the acknowledged champion on this coast for chronic and venereal diseases. Try him; he never fails to cure. His motto is, No cure pay. His charges are reasonable. jan14

Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum.

Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum works wonders. In all cases of Dropsy, Bright's Disease, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Complaints, or Retention of Urine, these troubles are entirely cured by the Nephreticum. Female Weakness, Gravel, Diabetes, pain in the back and loins are cured when all other medicines have failed.

See what the Druggists of Portland and San Francisco say about Dr. Mintie's Nephreticum and English Dandelion Pills:

"We have sold a large amount of Dr. Mintie's medicines; the English Dandelion Pills, also the Nephreticum, and in all cases they are highly spoken of and give entire satisfaction."

John A. Childs, Druggist, Second street, Portland.

C. H. Woodward & Co., Druggists, corner First and Alder street, Portland.

Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale, Druggists, Nos. 3 and 5 Front street, San Francisco, say:

"We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy before the public."

All Druggists keep these medicines. For all derangements of the Liver, Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.

For Biliousness and Dyspepsia, Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.

For Fever and Ague, Use Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.

Every family should keep the English Dandelion Pills on hand.

Dr. Mintie's Remedies will not "Cure all Complaints," but will, if taken according to directions, give immediate relief and perfect a cure in all troubles for which they are recommended. jan6-m

THE CONVENTION.

Outside of its use as a political institution the convention is becoming a very popular means of exchanging and increasing knowledge in the eastern states. Merchants from different cities and often from the same city, hold meetings and discuss different phases of their business. Doctors meet and talk, laugh and eat together, and many a horrible tale they tell of queer diseases and unheard of feats of surgery. Dentists hold annual conventions in several states. Even newspaper men are permitted one day in the year for the same purpose. Perhaps no class of business has been benefited more by this style of education than the railroads. Every class of railroad men in the East hold conventions, from presidents to brakemen. Managers meet and settle upon policies and rates, and if they lived up to what is done in convention it would be better for all parties, but they are suspicious of each other and suspicion is the father of treachery. Agreements are broken, rates knocked every way and the next meeting of the managers is called to put them up high enough to cinch the people out of twice what they made in the break. A uniform rate even though a little higher than the average would be far better than the fluctuations which follow fierce competition. But the most useful conventions held are those of the master car builders and masters of machinery. The latter was in session in Cincinnati last week. A report was submitted and discussed on the best form, material and size for locomotive wheels and axles. The axle was adopted and all roads represented will have uniform sizes and shapes as fast as new work is made. Another in the best iron and material for boilers, and the best method for economy in the use of fuel. The committee on boilers made an exhaustive report and ended by recommending steel for boilers. Conductors' and Engineers' conventions are mostly for the protection of wages, life insurance and special improvement. Each has a journal published monthly. The effects of their annual meetings have been very beneficial, especially to the Engineers.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Vitriol throwing is getting to be almost as common in America as it is in France. Nearly every day the telegraph brings the report of some one being disfigured for life in this infernal way. It is the most devilish and malicious crime with probably one exception, in the calendar, and cannot be too severely punished—the punishment ought to be death. It evinces such vile malignity, and is so appalling in its effects, that the act strikes one with horror. In many cases it would be infinitely better if the victim were killed outright, instead of being maimed and blinded to live on a miserable helpless wreck.

Col. Dwight, who died at Binghamton, New York, a short time since, had his life insured for $200,000. Now the insurance companies announce their intention of standing a law suit before liquidating. We fail to see the good of life insurance if the amount of a policy has to be paid out for lawyers fees to recover it. The way many of the life insurance companies do business is a good deal like a man paying premiums for a number of years for the privilege of leaving his heirs a law suit.

A New York Sunbeam shines with the truth after the following fashion: "The usher in a variety show at Paradise, Nev., stood where he obstructed the view of several persons in the audience. A remonstrance drew a shot from his revolver, wounding a quiet and popular young man. The usher was at once seized, taken out of the hall, and hanged to tree."

The Democratic congress tried a game of bluff, but the President called them. The best thing the Brigadiers can do now is to throw up their hands, jump the game, go home, and wait for a new deal.

Ben Butler has been Butlerized. Thieves broke into his house, drank his wine and carried off his spoons.

The Democrats now say "the caucus has corked us."

Theatres and Churches.

N. Y. Sun.

Is it right for Presbyterians to go to the theatre? Judge Drake thinks not; and yesterday in the general assembly at Saratoga he brought forward a resolution condemning the playhouse. After tabling an amendment declaring the opera to be equally undeserving of Presbyterian patronage, the general assembly referred the Judge's resolution to the appropriation committee.

It would be interesting to know the precise grounds on which the general assembly makes this discrimination between the theatre and the opera. Are the morals of the Presbyterian laity of so peculiar a texture that they would be polluted by "Hamlet," "The Rivals," "Rosencrantz," or "The Shaughraun," while a representation of "La Traviata" or "Don Giovanni" is as dew to them, giving them a lustier growth and a fresher bloom?

There are very bad books for sale in the stores and on the stalls. To be consistent, Judge Drake should introduce a resolution forbidding Presbyterians to read. There are disreputable hotels in our large cities. Why does not Judge Drake ask the general assembly to make the staying over night to a hotel an offense against Presbyterian discipline? There is as great a variety of plays as of books, and as wide a difference between respectable and disreputable theatres as between respectable and disreputable hotels.

To the Good People of Reno.

Having entered the field with the balance to contend for a share of the public patronage, it would perhaps be well at the start to state our claims to the above. I am not a sufferer by the fire, as claim no sympathy on that score. I believe it's the duty of the good people to give preference to old residents, provided all things are equal, but I Brown asks fifty cents for what Smith is willing to sell for twenty-five, on the grounds that he is loser by the fire and wants to get even. The trade will naturally go to the latter. Hence I say we have no claim on the people except on those who may wish to economize. If you wish to buy your wife a fine silk dress by all means go to Munich. If you want a suit of fine clothes go to friend Nathan's or Abrams', but if you want a "goose yoke," rat trap or jack knife go to Yankee Dodge's, where a dollar will buy a basketful. Recollect goods just as square as though sold over a marble counter. A child that can lip out the names of the articles wanted, can buy just as cheap as an expert.

P. S.—Money will be refunded on all goods that do not prove as represented.

JOTTINGS.

Business men say that yesterday was an exceedingly dull day.

Rasberries have made their appearance in market. They come from California.

Michael & Levy advertise that they will pay the highest prices for hides and wool.

To-day is the birthday of Queen Victoria, and a day which every loyal Englishman rejoices in.

Really the holes in the sidewalk on the west side of lower Virginia street ought to be stopped up.

The spring fashion: The strawberry box is cut lower in the neck this spring. Constitutional bias.

Virginia street is nearly free from obstructions. The sidewalks of Commercial row are still badly encumbered.

Several dwellings are being erected in various parts of town, and improvements are being put on a number of residences.

Leave your orders at Burchard & McOlelland's for compressed yeast before Sunday night, if you want it on Tuesday.

The regular meeting of the Reform Club will be held at the Court House this evening. C. S. Varian will deliver an address. Everybody is invited to attend.

The V. & T. railroad bridge is a favorite tramp rendezvous. They have written all over the timbers. Some of these scribbles are fine specimens of penmanship.

The box sheet for Barlow, Wilson, Primrose & West's minstrel show is now open at the post-office. Persons desiring to reserve seats had better call around early.

Insurance.

We desire to say to our insurance patrons and owners of property generally that we have secured the services of Mr. T. B. Camp, a professional insurance man who has had several years practical experience in the business and is thoroughly posted in all the details of the business. He will give his entire time and attention to the business, thus securing care and skill in the writing of policies, so as to properly cover the risks, which is of great importance, as many sufferers by fire may recall. It might have saved them hundreds of dollars in the adjustment of a loss. We shall issue policies and adjust losses at our office. D. A. BENDER & CO., Agents.

Held for Better Directions.

There is a letter addressed to Miss Alice C. Reed, Alto Pass, Union county, California, held at the post-office for lack of better directions. As there is no such county in California as Union county, and no such post-office as Alto Pass, it is not known where to send the letter to.

An Elegant Store.

The drug store of John F. Myers is one of the neatest and most tastefully arranged establishments of its kind to be seen anywhere. Mr. Myers is having a handsome prescription cabinet constructed, which will be finished in a few days.

Correction.

The name of Mr. Mahon, the sheriff of Contra Costa county, California, was erroneously printed Mayham in yesterday's account of the capture of Michael Donnelly. Mr. Mahon took the train last evening, with his captive, for California.

Grand Opening.

Isaac Barnett, the faithful, opens at 7 o'clock this evening his immense dry goods store on the corner of Commercial row and Virginia street. The ladies are all invited.

The Town Overrun With Tramps.

Tramps are beginning to fill up the town again. They seem to drift in here from all quarters, gravitate, as it were, toward this place naturally. Restaurant keepers are constantly annoyed by their importunities for meals. One restaurant owner told a GAZETTE reporter that he had from six to a dozen applicants, most of them healthy, able-bodied men, for meals every day. If these men want work, why do they come here? Reno is a much harder place for a stranger to get work in than most any other town in the state, simply because there are nearly enough laboring men residing here to do all the work needed. But their habits and the places they frequent lead to the conclusion that they do not come here to seek employment. Of course among the many are some good men who really want to work, but the community cannot afford to tolerate a horde of idle, vicious vagabonds, because a decent workman is now and then found consorting with them.

The Fair Ended.

The third and last night of the ladies fair and festival at the pavilion, for the benefit of the Methodist church was largely attended. The musical part of the entertainment exhibited considerable talent, and was enjoyed very much by all those present. "Johnny Schemmer" was sung by six children, three little girls and three little boys, and was heartily applauded. The tableaux and recitations were also very good. The fair has been successful, financially and socially, beyond expectations, and to the ladies of the Methodist congregation is the credit due. They were untiring in their efforts to make the affair a success, and have given a very good entertainment for very little money. It is a pleasure to note that they succeeded in their laudable endeavors.

The Great Eastern L. X. L.

The advertisement of the Great Eastern L. X. L. which appears in today's GAZETTE, is well worth studying by all who are buying goods. With such men as Mr. Meyerstein and such goods as he is bringing and the prices at which he will sell, there is no better place than Reno for people to come to trade. It is an actual fact that several Renesites have sent to California and paid bigger prices for poorer goods than they would have got here with the Great L. X. L. Here there is less chance than ever for outsiders to draw trade away. Goods will be cheaper than ever. Dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, hats and caps, at the lowest prices ever offered in the state.

Officer Avery Captures an Escaped Criminal.

Constable Avery succeeded in arresting Jack Davis, who escaped from Sheriff Hill, of Ormsby county, last January, this morning. Last winter Davis made a murderous assault upon a man in a gambling house with a wagon spoke and nearly killed him. For this he was arrested on a charge of assault with intent to kill, and made his escape before stated. Davis had just come in from Sierra Valley, when Avery saw him. Sheriff Hill has been telegraphed about the capture, and will probably be down to-night.

A Stubborn Ox.

A steer in one of Frank Jones' teams laid down while hitched to the wagon, on Virginia street this afternoon. He was dragged along down the street about fifty yards, but as he made no effort to get up, the team was stopped. After being unyoked he would not get up, and the driver and a dozen volunteers worked for nearly two hours with him. A large crowd gathered to witness the performance, and the affair developed into a first-class sensation. Rubbing his stearship's tale between two sticks finally brought him to time.

Not Thrown Out of Employment.

It was learned from Judge Gilson this morning that the reporter was misinformed in relation to a large number of men being thrown out of employment by the temporary injunction on the Last Chance ditch. The men merely quit work on Mr. Dalton's land, and began on the other side of it. Besides, the laborers are all Chinamen.

Where Do They Get Whiskey?

A lot of drunken squaws had a grand carouse on the river above town last night. This is almost every day occurrence. Hardly a day passes but drunken Indians are seen on the streets. The squaws are the worst. They curse, fight and are very noisy and disorderly. Somebody is laying up treasures in the tar bucket.

Picnic of the Pioneers.

The Pacific Coast Pioneers to-day announce their annual picnic for June 7. It will be held at Trendway's Ranch, Carson. It is intended to make it the grand affair of the season in the picnic line. Full particulars will be seen in the advertisement in another column.

A Lost Bark.

The first victim of the dog law, a big, fine looking Newfoundland, was hauled out of town this morning. Dog owners had better get their pets tagged if they don't want them to fall under the ban of the town executioner.

Professor Scott's goings.

Don't forget Professor Scott's soiree to-night. It will come off as usual at Kimball's hall this evening. The music and dancing will be excellent, and a pleasant time awaits all who attend.

PERSONAL.

P. N. Marker, of Washoe, is in town.

E. Chelovich, proprietor of the Wine House, arrived in town from Carson to-day.

Governor Kinkaid and his brother, James Kinkaid, departed for Carson this morning.

C. C. Stevenson is in town attending the meeting of the trustees of the Agricultural society.

Captain Harper sheriff of Lander county, arrived from Austin last night with two prisoners, sentenced to the state prison. He left with his charge for Carson this morning.

George C. Gorham, late secretary of the U. S. senate, will arrive on the overland train from the east to-night. He will stop off here for the purpose of visiting Harry Michaels, who is reported to be on his death bed.

H. M. Yerington and D. A. Bender came down from Carson to-day in a special car. They are here to see about building a platform along the south front of the Depot hotel, and also to arrange about some alterations of the track.

Notices of Divine Service.

There will be divine service at the Trinity Episcopal church to-morrow at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7:30 P. M., Rev. Mr. Jenvey officiating.

Rev. A. Dahms will preach at the Congregational church morning and evening, to-morrow, as usual. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sabbath school at 12 o'clock M.

There will be divine service at the M. E. church to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7:45 P. M., Rev. C. McKelvey officiating. Seats free; all are invited. Sabbath school at 1:30 P. M.

An Excellent Addition.

D. A. Bender & Co. have secured the services of T. B. Camp to attend to their insurance business. Mr. Camp has had several years experience, and is thoroughly posted in every department of the insurance business. He will devote his entire time and attention to the business, thereby insuring care and skill in the drawing up of policies.

Passed Through.

Barlow, Wilson, Primrose & West's minstrel troupe passed through yesterday for Virginia. They have just played a very successful engagement at Sacramento. A new and original programme has been arranged for this place, and next Wednesday Reno will have what has long been wanted, a first class show.

Meeting of Trustees.

The Trustees of the Agricultural Society have been in session this afternoon. They have been considering the question of arranging the speed programme for the coming fair, and other propositions, but nothing definite had been done at the hour of going to press.

Breaking in Wild Steers.

They were having a great time at Hymers & Comstock's corral this morning, yoking up half wild steers to be driven in Frank Jones' ox teams. Some of them were unruly, but they were yanked up and their necks put in the yoke, regardless of bucking.

The Alfalfa Crop Set Back.

The cold, backward spring has given alfalfa in this vicinity a setback. In ordinary seasons the alfalfa crop would be nearly ready for the mower, but this season has been so unfavorable that it will be two or three weeks later than usual this year.

The Pacific Hotel Sold.

M. T. Coats has purchased the Pacific house of R. Leeper, and will take possession next week. Mr. Coats is an old and popular hotel man, and will doubtless receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

LEGAL NOTICES.

Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, the State of Nevada, under and by virtue of a writ of Habeas Corpus, do hereby require you to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons, (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bond of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant. Plaintiff alleges that plaintiff and defendant were married at Carson, California, on or about July 20, 1873, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that on or about September 15th, 1873, you, the defendant, willfully deserted and abandoned plaintiff, and ever since have continued and do now so continue to do, desert, abandon and refuse to support plaintiff against her will, with or consent; that for more than a year next preceding the commencement of this action you, the defendant, have failed and neglected and now do fail and neglect to provide for the plaintiff the common necessities of life, which neglect is and was not the result of poverty on your part, which you could not have avoided by ordinary industry; that there are no children living in the issue of said marriage, and no common property. Plaintiff prays to be restored to her maiden name and for costs, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the clerk of said court at Reno, in said county. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I, P. B. COMSTOCK, Clerk of the District Court of the Second Judicial District, Nevada, in and for Washoe county, By S. A. MANN, Deputy, April 18th 1879.
